NEWS BY TO-DAY'S MAIL.

We have reports of the success of the Im-perialists in Mexico. There does not seem to be any intention upon the part of the Imperialists to evacuate. The Emperor had left the capital for Yucatan. General Magruder has been appointed Imperial Surveyor General of Colony Lands.

Telegraphic communication has been completed between New York and New Orleans.
 The first message in five years passed straight through on the 25th instant.

Gen. Thomas has rescinded his order prohibiting the citizens of Nashville from carrying side arms.

A man by the name of Pelicer, who has been arrested in Brooklyn, N. Y., on suspicion of being the murderer of Mr. Ortega, has been identified by several persons, and it is thought he is the person who committed the murder.

The Legislature of North Carolina meets to-day. Gov. Holden is confined to his bed by severe illness. It is thought the Constitutional Amendment abolishing slavery will be adopted by the Legislature.

By a collision on the Mississippi river, on the 25th inst., the steamer Niagara was sunk and one hundred discharged colored soldiers were drowned. The cabin passengers and crew were all saved.

The test oath has been taken into court in New Orleans, and a Judge there has intimated that he considers it unconstitutional.

The bark Cuppie, from Baltimore for Liverpool, was towed into Fortress Monroe yesterday with the crew in mutiny.

A large number of slaves have been landed in Cuba. The landing was effected on the northeastern portion of the island.

The Louisiana State Legislature has been fully organized.

The Fenian flag has been raised over the headquarters of the association in New York.
 There is a good report of the prospects of the cotton crop in Louisiana.

Frauds on the Quartermaster's Department at Louisville, Ky., amounting to upwards of one hundred thousand dollars, have been discovered, and it is supposed they will greatly exceed that amount. The military authorities have for the present suppressed the names of the parties implicated.

Wm. Aiken, formerly in Congress, is believed to have been elected on the 22d inst., to the House of Representatives of the U. S. from the Charleston district, in South Carolina. Mr. A. was always an anti-secessionist.

A special dispatch from Washington to the New York Evening Post says that a part of the President's message is in type and was read in Cabinet meeting. Mr. McPherson, Clerk of the House of Representatives, has sent the new roll to the printer. No names from rebellious States appear upon it.

Through the efforts of detectives Lohman and Vernon, the false leg which was captured in March, 1864, from Colonel Ulric Dahlgren, who was killed while on his retreat from a raiding expedition near Richmond, has been secured and restored to his friends.

SEIZURE OF TOBACCO AT RICHMOND.—No little sensation was created among the trade on Wednesday by the seizure of tobacco purchased by John Jones, of this city, who is purchasing agent for Belmont & Co., of New York, who are agents for the Rothschilds. It appears that during the morning Colonel Loomis, who is agent for the Treasury of the United States, called at Anderson's and at Myers's warehouses, and asked the inspectors if they had not some of Rothschild's tobacco stored there. The inspectors informed him they had, whereupon he directed it to be put in order for shipping. He was then asked by the inspectors had he the usual tobacco notes.
 To which he replied that he had not, but that he had a list of the tobacco prepared by Mr.
 Suydam, who is also an agent of Belmont & Co. The inspectors, of course, had nothing further to say at the moment, and yielded assent. The amount in Anderson's warehouse is two hundred and fifty-three hogsheads, and in Myers's one hundred and thirteen hogsheads. If we recollect rightly, the Confederate Government seized this same tobacco during the war, but subsequently gave it up to the owners. [Richmond Whig, Nov. 22.]
